

No Delivery of Goods, Services, or Manifested Outcomes

Manifestore is a personal-development, journaling, and reflection tool built around manifestation practice. All commerce-like features in the Service — including the desires catalog, placing an "order," shipping estimates, order statuses, and any related notifications — are symbolic and simulated. They exist solely to support a personal ritual and have no connection to any real-world transaction, merchant, inventory, carrier, or fulfillment process.

Specifically, and without limitation:

1. No goods or services are sold, sourced, shipped, or delivered. Items you add to your catalog or "order" are descriptions you create yourself. We do not stock, procure, purchase, or deliver them, and no payment is taken for them.
2. Order statuses are automated and fictional. Transitions between "Ordered," "Shipped," and "Delivered," along with any estimated ship or delivery time, are generated automatically by the Service on a preset schedule. They do not indicate that anything has been dispatched, is in transit, or has arrived.
3. Emails and notifications about orders are part of the simulation. Any message you receive referring to an order being shipped, delivered, or otherwise progressing is generated by the Service as part of the ritual experience and must not be relied upon as confirmation of a real shipment or purchase.
4. No outcome is promised. We make no representation, warranty, or guarantee — express or implied — that any desire, goal, item, or outcome recorded in the Service will manifest, materialize, or be obtained, in any form or within any timeframe. Results, if any, depend entirely on your own actions, circumstances, and choices.
5. Not professional advice. The Service is not financial, medical, psychological, legal, or other professional advice, and is not a substitute for it. You remain solely responsible for decisions you make in connection with your use of the Service.

You acknowledge that you understand the simulated nature of these features and that you are not entering into any purchase, sale, or delivery agreement with us by using them.
